Power Affirmations from the Wisdom of Today's Success Masters

Introduction

Snap your finger. Just do it. Humor me. Snap your finger.

Do you feel that? There is a certain finality when you snap your finger. It can be very powerful depending on the thoughts back of it. Hypnotists use the snap of the finger to induce certain states of consciousness, and it works.

OK. Honor system. You just snapped your finger. Now do it again, but don't use your mind. Impossible right? Mind is the origination point of all things. You cannot even use your imagination apart from MIND. Anything that exists in the physical universe begins with MIND. Nothing can be experienced unless it first begins in the realm of creative MIND. Every desire you have within you is a Mind seed with the potential of becoming your reality.

So, what is it that you want to experience in this life? Stop and really think about it. Do you want to be a millionaire? A billionaire? Do you want amazing relationships? To travel? To influence others? To give generously? To make a real difference in the world? No matter what you desire, you can never experience it unless it is first created in your MIND.

There are two basic categories of MIND: The Conscious and the Subconscious. Your Conscious Mind is your decision maker. It is the place where actions are decided upon. The Subconscious Mind is your habit center. It is the MIND that causes you to automatically do things without consciously thinking about them. The vast majority of what you do is actually based on your subconscious thinking. It is the overall perception that you have of yourself. It reveals what you truly believe deep inside your MIND. You can consciously decide to be something different, but until it becomes engrafted into your subconscious MIND, you will naturally revert to your old ways of thinking and being.

Power Affirmations from the Wisdom of Today's Success Masters

The fact that you are reading this book tells me that you want to create a different kind of life than you are now living. And the fact that this book is about success tells me that you want to create a life that is wildly successful. No matter how you look at it, that change cannot take place until it is first created in your MIND, and the only way to truly make the shift is to have your MIND so dominated with success-oriented thinking that your subconscious takes over.

In Napoleon Hill's book, Think and Grow Rich, he claims, "Autosuggestion is self-suggestion. It is the agency of communication between that part of the mind where conscious thought takes place and that which serves as the seat of action for the subconscious mind." He goes on to say that, "Through repetition of this procedure, you voluntarily create thought habits which are favorable to your efforts to transmute desire into its monetary equivalent."

Affirmations are autosuggestions. They create in your MIND the thought patterns necessary for you to take the right actions. Every affirmation becomes a reference that you deliberately place within your MIND. The more references you speak, the more you override present thought patterns that are keeping you where you are in life.

King Solomon once said, "Life and death are in the power of the tongue and those who love it will eat its fruit." This is a simple statement of fact. It is neither a blessing, nor a curse. What makes it a blessing or a curse is the nature of what is spoken.

Let's briefly delve into this at a deeper level. Every thought you think effects the ether, but what you become literally controls it. If you've ever seen the Flower of Life in sacred geometry, it is a representation of how things work. Everything in existence has an electromagnetic flow to it. It flows from positive to negative in a donut like shape. Scientists call this the Tube Torus. Every cell of your body has one. When one torus is connected to another, they form a brand-new torus around them. The body in which you dwell is a collection of tori that have formed one singular torus around it.

Power Affirmations from the Wisdom of Today's Success Masters

Your torus is flowing at this very moment. That torus flow is your electromagnetic frequency signature. The entire universe is made up of these tori. Each one is attached to the next eventually creating one massive singular unit that we call the universe. Mind, or consciousness, is at the heart of every torus flow. Every torus has a frequency that causes it to be attracted, or attached, to the one that is most like it or that fulfills the intention of the Original Thought. Your body is a collection of tori that form an overall frequency signature that attracts you to the environment and people that are perfect for it. At this very moment, you are exactly where you are supposed to be. The only way to change that situation is to change your torus frequency signature. You must become something different.

You are a thinking being capable of original thought. Your dominant thoughts cause your torus to flow with a frequency that reflects them. Being conscious of this gives you incredible power. If you can change your thinking patterns and BECOME different, you will attract yourself to whatever environment that is conducive to your new signature. That frequency not only attracts you to other like frequencies, but it attracts them to you as well. Through your dominant frequencies, you can attract business partners, situations, contracts, money, and virtually anything that you desire. This is one of those few things that sound too good to be true but actually are true. The problem is that our perception paradigm prevents us from taking advantage of this power. To overcome your present frequency signature is going to take a lot of effort, but you have a tool for that in your hands right now.

Every time you fill your mind with information your frequency changes. When you speak that information into your life, it changes even more. The more you speak that information, the more you change.

Power Affirmations from the Wisdom of Today's Success Masters

Now here's a little secret that science is just beginning to prove. Your emotional content is the key to empowering your affirmations and the signature that they produce. I was listening to an interview with Tony Robbins once and he was asked if he used affirmations. He replied that he doesn't follow the average "positive thinking bullshit." Instead, he takes those affirmations and turns them into incantations. He went on to explain that you have to embody what you are speaking. You have to put your whole body and emotions into it and truly believe that what you are saying is the truth. It was like a gazillion watt light bulb went off in my head. He is exactly right! It's not just about what you speak, it's about what you become! The next question you should ask yourself is, what do I want to become? If you want to become an extremely successful person, you begin by engrafting the thoughts of the extremely successful into your subconscious mind.

To keep up in today's economy, one must innovate, and innovation is accelerating rapidly. Innovation is in the ether. It is ever-present in the akasha. It is adaptation. It is evolution. It is change. To tap into it, you must tap into the most recent ideas, ask the right questions, and get the right answers. Where do you find the most recent ideas? They are right here in the pages of this book. Some of them are timeless, others are not. The more you engraft them into your psyche, the more you are capable of keeping up and even taking the lead. These people are the masters of success. Learn from them. Make their ideas your own, then take them to the next level by adding your own personality and giftedness to them. Greater specificity can only be found with each individual, and you must find your specialty within yourself. Every single one of these people built a foundation on the wisdom of others, then they took that wisdom to the next level. Now it's your turn.

How to Use This Book

The pattern of the book is simple. I introduce a success master by giving their name, what they are known for, and a website where you can learn more about them. Then I give you a series of quotations by these people that express what they have learned and what advice they give to the rest of us who desire to have similar success. Each series of quotations are followed by an affirmation based on those quotations.

Power Affirmations from the Wisdom of Today's Success Masters

The word “water” will not make you wet, but it will prepare you for its wetness. The words in these quotations and affirmations will connect you to the very spirit of those who have done what it takes to create abundant lives, but they are just the foundation. It is up to you to give these words hands and feet. Only then will your individual dream, created in your imagination, become a physical reality to be lived in this physical universe.

Read what these amazing people are saying. Speak those ideas into your life with the fervency of absolute faith. The more you speak them, the more they will become a part of you. But always remember, just changing your mind doesn't change your world. You must take what you are affirming and make it who you are. You must embody what you are saying. Act upon it. Become it. If you do this, your life will never be the same!

Now let's get started with our first success master, Sheldon Adelson:

“For me, businesses are like buses. You stand on a corner, and you don't like where the first bus is going? Wait ten minutes and take another. Don't like that one? They'll just keep coming. There's no end to buses or businesses.”

“Entrepreneurship is essentially identifying the path that everyone takes; and choosing a different, better way.”

“I don't cry when I lose. There's always a new hand coming up.”

“The key factor in my strategy is longevity.”

“Why do I need succession planning? I'm very alert; I'm very vibrant. I have no intention to retire.”

“For those who wish to stay and work in computer science or technology, fields badly in need of their services, let's roll out the welcome mat.”

I have an abundance mentality. There are no shortages of business ideas or opportunities to create them. There is always a business opportunity that is designed just for me.

I recognize what others are doing, throw in my own unique personality, and create something brand new.

I never cry when I lose. I am always aware that a new hand is being dealt to me every day bringing me another opportunity for victory.

I'm in this for the long haul. I am quick and yet I am patient. I don't expect that everything will be created in a day.

I intend to live for the rest of my life. I am vibrant! I am alert! I am full of life! Retiring is not an option. I always have a plan for the next stage of my life.

“What you’re thinking is what you’re becoming.”

“Champions aren’t made in the gyms. Champions are made from something they have deep inside them - a desire, a dream, a vision.”

“Impossible is just a big word thrown around by small men who find it easier to live in the world they’ve been given than to explore the power they have to change it.”

“My soul has grown over the years, and some of my views have changed. As long as I am alive, I will continue to try to understand more because the work of the heart is never done.”

“It’s hard to beat a guy when he’s got his mind made up that he’s going to win.”

Power Affirmations from the Wisdom of Today's Success Masters

Power Affirmation:

When I get knocked down, it only inspires me to get right back up and continue to fight. I eat adversity for breakfast!

I have the courage to take the first step. I have the heart of a champion.

I rise. No matter how many times I fall, I always rise again. No matter how high the mountain, I climb it. I meet every challenge and overcome every hardship. I am not built for quitting. I am blessed and unstoppable. Even on the steepest road, I never turn back.

What I choose to think is what I become.

I have the mentality of a champion. I have a dream within me that I intend to fulfill. I have a vision for my future that is destined to be lived.

I see the word "impossible" and I laugh. It is nothing but an excuse for small minds and has no place in my vocabulary. I embrace the power to change my situation. I regularly do that which is seen as impossible. I regularly experience the extraordinary in my life.

My soul is constantly growing, and I am getting better each and every day. I am always learning, evolving, and increasing my understanding. My heart's work is never complete.

“There is an old saying about the strength of the wolf is the pack, and I think there is a lot of truth to that. On a football team, it's not the strength of the individual players, but it is the strength of the unit and how they all function together.”

“If you sit back & spend too much time feeling good about what you did in the past, you're going to come up short next time.”

“Talent sets the floor; character sets the ceiling.”

“Mental Toughness is doing the right thing for the team when it's not the best thing for you.”

“For a team to accomplish their goal, everybody's got to give up a little bit of their individuality.”

“To live in the past is to die in the present.”

“In short, we accumulate all the information that we can accumulate, wherever that information comes from, and try to analyze it and make the best decision we can make for our football team on a case-by-case basis. It's the same for every single player; the process is the same.”

Power Affirmations from the Wisdom of Today's Success Masters

Power Affirmation:

I am like a wolf who finds my greatest strength in the pack. We are an amazing team, each with our individual strengths that we offer for the success of our mission. We are powerful individuals who function together as one.

I enjoy my victories, but then I move on. I do not live in the past; by fully living in the present, I am creating an amazing future.

My talent sets the floor; my character sets the ceiling.

I am mentally tough and disciplined. I do my best for the team even when it is not the best thing for me personally.

When working for the team, I am willing to sacrifice a little bit of my individuality, but not my soul.

I accumulate all the information that I can from whatever source that is available. I analyze it and make the best decision I can based on what it tells me; then I execute with my whole heart and trust the process.

Patrick Bet-David

(Multimillionaire entrepreneur, financial advisor, and bestselling author.)

www.patrickbetdavid.com

“The downside is that a person spends $20 to watch that hero instead of being that hero himself.”

“We never feel completely ready for life’s big decisions; but in taking the leap, we push ourselves to the next level.”

“If you always make the right decision, the safe decision, the one most people make, you will be the same as everyone else.”

“The most dangerous unhappy people I’ve met are those who are both extremely ambitious and extremely lazy. What this combination produces is envy, which is a deadly sin that will make your life a living hell. These are people who think big and want to do something big, but they’re not willing to put in the work to earn it. They’ll cheat. They’ll throw you under the bus. They’re constantly looking for shortcuts. And if someone else has what they want, it eats away at their very soul. If someone is winning at a higher level than you are, either lower your expectations to match your work ethic or increase your work ethic to exceed your expectations. If you do neither, you’ll be miserable. What it all boils down to is that alignment is the key to fulfillment”

Power Affirmation:

I am the hero of my story.

Power Affirmations from the Wisdom of Today's Success Masters

Whenever I am faced with a big decision, I take the leap and push myself to the next level. I know that I will never be completely ready, but I am brave enough to take the risk.

If I always make the right decision, the safe decision, the one that most people make, I will be the same as everyone else, and that is not the way I am built.

My ambition matches my work ethic. I think big and act big. I maintain my integrity and trust the process. I celebrate the success of others and see it as proof that it can be done. If someone is winning at a higher level than me, I praise them and learn from them. Then I increase my work ethic to exceed my expectations. Alignment is the key to my fulfillment; therefore, my action always matches my vision.

Power Affirmations from the Wisdom of Today's Success Masters

I cheated on my fears, broke up with my doubts, and got engaged to my faith. Now I can marry my dreams.

Happiness comes from me. No one else can make me happy. I make me happy.

I trust in myself, and I do what I was born to do.

I am the one who determines my self-worth. No one else determines my value. I have appraised myself and determined myself to be priceless.

The voices of others do not determine who I am or what I can achieve. I know what I want, and I have every right and all the power I need to get it no matter what anyone else says about it.

Power is mine. It is within me and all around me. It is not given to me like a genie in a bottle. I must take it, live within it, and use it as I see fit.

I am a strong person with a victor's mentality. I am nobody's victim. I never make excuses. I never expect anyone else to provide what I know I can provide for myself.

Power Affirmation:

I am an innovator. I am always doing something new. This makes me a prime candidate for criticism from small minds.

I am working hard, I am having fun, and I am making history.

I don't try to force myself to be interested in something. I didn't choose my passions; my passions chose me.

I am not built to be in survival mode. I am always thriving and growing into something more spectacular than I have ever been.

I am constantly revising my understanding of things. I reconsider problems that I thought I'd already solved. I remain open to new points of view, new information, and new ideas. I am open to contradictions and challenges to my own way of thinking. I know that there is always a new and better way.

I am stubborn on my vision, but I am flexible on the details.

Life is too short for me to be hanging out with people who aren't resourceful.

My brand is my reputation. I earn my reputation by trying to do hard things well.

Power Affirmation:

I train myself to see opportunity rather than difficulty. I see joy rather than anxiety, and I continually practice rather than trust my present performance.

The greatest mind control is control over my own mind.

No one can give me heart. No one can give me discipline. No one can make me unstoppable. These are things I must decide for myself. But make no mistake, I've made that decision. It is not a genetic gift. It is my chosen mindset. I am the most disciplined, immovable, and unstoppable person that I know.

I am filled with joy. This didn't happen by accident. I created it.

I work so ridiculously hard at my craft that when people see how good I am, they just assume that I'm naturally talented.

I dissect how I spend my time for it reveals my priorities.

I am not concerned about where to start. I just start, and things naturally fall into place. It is the decision that I make that is important. It is my decision to get started and work toward my goal. It is my decision to face possible failure. It is my decision to get up when I've failed, learn from my mistakes, and press on once again. I practice my craft in a spirit of excellence. What I put into it, I get out of it. That is why I am always at my best.

My past victories cannot be lived in the present moment. They were glorious in their time, but my focus is on the here and now.

Power Affirmation:

I have complete control over the thoughts that I think, the images I visualize, and the actions that I take. How I use them determines everything that I experience. If I don't like what I am producing and experiencing, all I have to do is change my responses.

I have decided what it is that I want. I have written it down and I review it regularly. Each day I do something that moves me toward those goals.

Two things essentially make me wise – the books I read and the people that I meet.

I have decided what I want, and I know of a certainty that I can have it. I deserve it and know that it is possible for me to attain. Every day I close my eyes and visualize myself having it. I experience it in my mind's eye. When I open my eyes, I focus on what I have already achieved, and I am grateful. I love my life, and I am grateful for the good things that I have. Every day brings me one step closer to my goal, and I enjoy the process along the way. I release to the Universe all that is still being made manifest, fully trusting that it will come to me without fail.

If I am not a little bit uncomfortable every day, then I am not growing. All of the good stuff is outside of my comfort zone.

The world doesn't pay me for what I know; it pays me for what I do.

“Most people only work enough so that it feels like work, whereas successful people work at a pace that gets such satisfying results that work is a reward. Truly successful people don't even call it work; for them, it's a passion. Why? Because they do enough to win!”

“Most opportunities are disguised as problems.”

“Wake up! No one is going to save you. No one is going to take care of your family or your retirement. No one is going to ‘make things’ work out for you. The only way to do so is to utilize every moment of every day at 10X levels.”

Power Affirmations from the Wisdom of Today's Success Masters

Power Affirmation:

I always remember that the people who say my dreams are impossible have already quit on theirs.

When my goal seems to be out of reach, instead of reducing the target, I increase my actions. If things aren't working, I simply change my approach.

I work at a pace that gets such satisfying results that the work itself is a reward. I don't even call it work. For me, it is a passion because I am doing what it takes to win.

I expose the hidden opportunity in every problem that I face.

I am obsessed about the things that I want. They are worth the price I am paying to get them.

I use debt to leverage my investments and grow my cash flows. I do not use debt to buy things that make rich people richer.

I am my own savior. I'm not looking for an outside source to save me or provide for me. I do what it takes to secure an abundant life for myself and my family. No one else is going to make things work out for me. I make things work out for myself. I utilize every moment of every day at 10X levels.

“If you want to be happy, make someone else happy. If you want to find the right person in your life, be the right person. If you want to see change in the world, become the change you want to see.”

“I think seriousness is a mask of self-importance and self-importance in turn is a mask for self-pity. So if you're really going to pursue a spiritual way of living in the world, you must be lighthearted and carefree, have humor, be able to tolerate ambiguity and embrace uncertainty, and be forgiving of yourself and everybody else.”

“When you begin to meditate on a regular basis, you will start to notice that thoughts and feelings that may have been building up inside of you are gently released and you reach the quiet place that was always there, waiting for you- the place of pure awareness. It is there that you will experience peace, healing, and true rejuvenation.”

“You and I are infinite choice-makers. In every moment of our existence, we are in that field of all possibilities where we have access to an infinity of choices. Some of these choices are made consciously, while others are made unconsciously. But the best way to understand and maximize the use of karmic law is to become consciously aware of the choices we make every moment.”

Power Affirmation:

I maintain my happiness by making other people happy. I find the right person by being the right person. I am the change that I want to see in the world.

I am lighthearted and do not take myself too seriously. I am carefree and have a great sense of humor. I am well able to tolerate ambiguity and embrace uncertainty. I remember the frame of the human being; therefore, I am always forgiving of myself as well as others.

I take time every day to meditate and reboot my internal operating system. This refocuses my attention so that I can see the thoughts and feelings that have been building up inside of me. It places me in the present moment and helps me see things as they truly are. There is a quiet place that is always there waiting for me. It is the place where I find pure awareness. It is there that I experience peace, healing, and true rejuvenation.

I am an infinite choice-maker. I am eternally aware that I live within the field of all possibilities where I have access to an infinity of choices. I am aware of karmic law; therefore, I am consciously aware of the choices I make in every moment. My life is a reflection of my choices, and I choose to make choices that bring me joy, peace, love, and prosperity.

It's OK for me to be me. I don't have to try to be anyone else. I am who I am, however I am, and that is beautiful. I don't have to be perfect. I just have to be me.

I am at peace with my flaws. They are part of my growth as an infinite, eternal spirit. I am fine with who I am. I even have fun with it. When I fall, I just get back up and press forward once again. When I make mistakes, I learn from them and move on. They do not define me. I am just me, and I am fine with that.

I am a trend setter. I see the past as the foundation on which I am building, but I don't intend to live there. It is a lot more fun for me to build the future.

I see my financial independence as paramount. I live my life on my own terms. Through my financial independence, I am free to live my life as I choose.

I am powerful enough to break every bad habit that could hinder my destiny. The task may be like uprooting a powerful oak within me, but I have the strength to do it. I replace every bad habit with good one, and I cultivate it one day at a time.

“Unlike in school, in life you don’t have to come up with all the right answers. You can ask the people around you for help — or even ask them to do the things you don’t do well. In other words, there is almost no reason not to succeed if you take the attitude of 1) total flexibility — good answers can come from anyone or anywhere (and in fact, as I have mentioned, there are far more good answers ‘out there’ than there are in you) and 2) total accountability: regardless of where the good answers come from, it’s your job to find them.”

If I don't do something well, I find someone who does. I ensure my success by remaining flexible. I know that good answers can come from anyone or anywhere. There are far more answers outside of me than are within me. Regardless of where the good answers are, it is my job to find them.

Power Affirmation:

I condition myself to recognize and believe the Truth. I always question the official narrative, and I clearly see when I am being propagandized. I am not moved by the negativity of a pessimistic world. I hold fast to what promotes my health and happiness, and I move forward into wealth and success.

I release all of those negative belief paradigms that hold me back in life. I cut loose the emotions of my past and do not allow them to dictate my actions in the present. I change my belief systems into ones that are conducive to a truly joyful and prosperous life.

I cannot create a new future by holding on to the emotions of my past. Therefore, I release them and focus on emotions of joy, peace, gratitude, and prosperity.

I am very aware of my automatic habits. I am conscious of my subconscious behaviors. I am changing those habits that do not serve me and creating new habits conducive to the life I desire to live.

Every time I have a thought, I create a chemical in my brain. If I have a good thought, I create chemicals that make me feel good. If I have a negative thought, I create chemicals that make me feel exactly the way I am thinking. Therefore, I choose to think good thoughts that make me feel good.

Knowledge provides me with power, but self-empowerment comes with knowledge about myself.

I must feel empowered for success in order to be successful. I must feel abundant for my wealth to find me. I must feel gratitude to create the kind of life that I want to live. All things are right now within me. All feelings are right now available to me. Therefore, I choose to express feelings of empowerment, abundance, and gratitude.

“No matter what your current ability is, effort is what ignites that ability and turns it into accomplishment.”

“When you enter a mindset, you enter a new world. In one world (the world of fixed traits) success is about proving you’re smart or talented. Validating yourself. In the other (the world of changing qualities) it’s about stretching yourself to learn something new. Developing yourself.”

“Effort is one of those things that gives meaning to life. Effort means you care about something, that something is important to you, and you are willing to work for it.”

“Why waste time proving over and over how great you are, when you could be getting better? Why hide deficiencies instead of overcoming them? Why look for friends or partners who will just shore up your self-esteem instead of ones who will also challenge you to grow? And why seek out the tried and true, instead of experiences that will stretch you? The passion for stretching yourself and sticking to it, even (or especially) when it’s not going well, is the hallmark of the growth mindset. This is the mindset that allows people to thrive during some of the most challenging times in their lives.”

In the other, the world of changing qualities, it's about stretching myself to learn something new. It is about developing myself. My growth mindset lives within the realm of creation and innovation.

Effort is one of those things that gives my life meaning. It means that I care about something, that something is important to me, and that I am willing to work for it.

I consider it a waste of time trying to prove how great I am, when I could simply be getting better. I don't hide my deficiencies, I overcome them. I don't look for friends or partners who will just shore up my self-esteem; I look for those who challenge me to grow. I look for those who encourage me instead of condemning me. Why should I seek out the tried and true when I can seek experiences that stretch me and make me a better version of myself? I have a passion for stretching myself and sticking to things even when it's not going well. I am always learning, growing, and getting better. This mindset is what allows me to thrive during some of the most challenging times of my life.

“The visionary starts with a clean sheet of paper and re-imagines the world.”

“Success has to do with deliberate practice. Practice must be focused, determined, and in an environment where there’s feedback.”

“The key to good decision making is not knowledge. It is understanding. We are swimming in the former. We are desperately lacking in the latter.”

“It takes ten thousand hours to truly master anything. Time spent leads to experience; experience leads to proficiency; and the more proficient you are the more valuable you’ll be.”

“Innovators have to be open. They have to be able to imagine things that others cannot and be willing to challenge their own preconceptions. They also need to be conscientious. An innovator who has brilliant ideas but lacks the discipline and persistence to carry them out is merely a dreamer ... But crucially, innovators need to be disagreeable ... They are people willing to take social risks-to do things that others might disapprove of.”

Power Affirmation:

It is my responsibility to constantly update my position on as many things as possible. I must constantly learn, apply, and synthesize new knowledge. If I am not contradicting myself from time to time, I am not thinking enough.

I am a visionary. I start with a clean sheet of paper and re-imagine the world.

I know the power of consistent action and deliberate practice. I practice my craft every single day. My practice is focused and determined, and in an environment where there is feedback.

It is my understanding of what I have learned that makes me a good decision maker. I gain true understanding of things by putting them into practice.

I embrace the process of honing my skills. I spend time every day making myself better. The time I spend leads to experience, my experience makes me proficient, and the more proficient I am the more valuable I am to others.

As an innovator, I have an open mind. I imagine things that others cannot, and I am willing to challenge my own preconceptions. I am also conscientious. I have brilliant ideas, but I also have the discipline and persistence to carry them out. I am not just a thinker; I am a doer. As an innovator, I am not always liked. ## Power Affirmation:

I'm on board with Yoda and Tim Grover. I don't try. Try is just an excuse for possible failure. When I make up my mind to do it, I don't try, I just get it done.

When it comes to my own passionate actions, I am always alone. What I do is my choice and mine alone. Even when I'm surrounded by screaming fans cheering me on, I am alone in my actions. I am the one getting it done. I am alone in my head, alone with that buzz that no one can feel but me. There is no outside static, no distractions, no compromises - just me and the task that I've determined to complete.

I am relentless. I demand more of myself than anyone else could ever demand of me. I know that every time I stop, I can still do more. I must do more. The reward is worth it.

For me to have what I truly want, I must first be who I truly am.

I am not built for fear. I move toward my goal in spite of weaknesses or the mistakes I might make. When I fail, I learn from the mistake and continue pressing forward. There is nothing that can keep me from being the person I have chosen to be.

I've embraced the process. I am perfectly comfortable with being uncomfortable.

I am completely self-aware. What's more is that I accept and respect who I am. I trust my true nature and live as a self-actualized person. This takes me to the Zone where I can shut out all the noise, all the negativity and fear and distractions and lies, and I can achieve whatever I truly want in whatever I choose to do.

“I don't have heroes, exactly, but I do have people I hold in high respect. Ronald Reagan, for example, stood for ideals that I value: integrity, patriotism and a fundamental belief in goodness and capabilities of mankind.”

“Talk to successful entrepreneurs. Learn about what they've experienced so you can avoid some of the pitfalls that come with wealth.”

“We need to get out of the way of the small business owner — and big business owners — and allow them to do what government can only dream of doing: creating jobs and thereby creating wealth.”

“Change your path, be willing to, and don't see that as a failure. That's just life. You're going to make mistakes, you're going to be dissuaded, don't quit. You can't lose sight of what you really want to do.”

“Do your homework. Put your business plan together, in writing, run it past a couple of people you respect, run it past the banker without asking him for money. Is there a need for what it is you're trying to accomplish, the service you're trying to provide, or the product you're trying to sell?”

Power Affirmation:

I have no need for a hero in my life. I don't need someone to swoop in and provide for me. All that I need is right now within me. I have my mentors to point the way, and they can trust me to get the job done. I value all wisdom and remain humble and teachable.

Power Affirmations from the Wisdom of Today's Success Masters

I embrace a fundamental belief in the goodness of others and the capabilities of mankind.

I associate with successful entrepreneurs. I learn from what they've experienced so I can avoid many of the pitfalls that come with wealth.

I am a true wealth creator. As I expand, I create jobs and opportunities for many others. Government can only dream of doing what I'm doing.

I am willing to embrace change and walk a new path. It is not a failure; it is simply a different direction for me to take. It's just life and I accept it. I accept that things don't always go as I have planned, but I never quit. I never lose sight of what I really want to do.

I do my homework. I do what it takes to figure things out and get them done. I put my business plan together, in writing, and run it past people that I respect. I run it past my banker without asking for any money. I make sure there is a need or desire for the product or service that I'm providing. I am in business to give my customers what they want.

The standard of my success in life is not in the things that I have or the money that I make. My success is all about the amount of joy that I feel.

“Desiring riches with a state of mind that becomes an obsession, then planning definite ways and means to acquire riches, and backing those plans with persistence which does not recognize failure, will bring riches.”

“Faith is a state of mind which may be induced, or created, by affirmation or repeated instructions to the subconscious mind, through the principle of auto suggestion... Repetition of affirmation of orders to your subconscious mind is the only known method of voluntary development of the emotion of faith.”

“Faith is the only agency through which the cosmic force of Infinite Intelligence can be harnessed and used by man.”

“Thoughts which are mixed with any of the feelings of emotions constitutes a ‘magnetic’ force which attracts, from the vibrations of the ether, other similar related thoughts... Any thought, idea, plan, or purpose which one holds in one’s mind attracts, from the vibrations of the ether, a host of its relatives, adds these ‘relatives’ to its own force, and grows until it becomes the dominating, motivating master of the individual to whose mind it has been housed.”

“Your greatest weakness is lack of self-confidence. This handicap can be surmounted, and timidity translated into courage, through the aid of the principle of auto-suggestion.”

“Do not wait for a definite plan, through which you intend to exchange services or merchandise in return for the money you are visualizing, but begin at once to see yourself in possession of the money, demanding and expecting meanwhile that your subconscious mind will hand over the plan, or plans, you need. Be on the alert for these plans, and when they appear, put them into action immediately.”

Power Affirmations from the Wisdom of Today's Success Masters

Power Affirmation:

I desire riches with a state of mind that has become an obsession. I am all in on this. I have my definite plan for the ways and means for me to acquire riches, and I back those plans with a persistence that does not recognize failure. I can already feel the money in my hands and see it in my bank account.

My faith is a state of mind that I am creating through repeated affirmations and instructions to my subconscious mind. I use the principle of autosuggestion with consistency and powerful emotional content. My repetition of orders to my subconscious mind is supercharging my faith. I know who I am, and I know what I can do. All that I desire is mine.

My faith is the agency through which I harness the cosmic force of Infinite Intelligence. It is my tool to create, receive, and live the life that I desire to live.

When my thoughts are supercharged with powerful emotions, it constitutes a magnetic force which attracts, from the vibrations of the ether, other similar related thoughts. I can draw to myself things, situations, and people that are conducive to my desire. Any thought, idea, plan, or purpose that I hold in my mind attracts, from the vibrations of the ether, a host of its relatives, adds these relatives to its own force, and grows until it becomes the dominating, motivating master of my life.

I am an extremely self-confident person. I surmount all timidity and transform it into courage through the aid of my power affirmations.

I do not wait for a definite plan before I begin to act. It is through my action that I form my best planning. I already see myself in possession of the money that I desire. I make my demand of my subconscious mind to deliver to me the exact plans that I need and the exact services or products that I will sell in order to obtain what I desire. I am always on the alert for these plans and when they appear I put them into action immediately.

I reject living in fear and choose to live my dreams.

There is never a perfect time for me to do something; therefore, I make the time perfect.

Today, I do what others won't, so I can achieve tomorrow what others can't.

What I do has extreme value. I pitch that value to my investors. I reveal what it is worth and sell the dream of how much profit can be made from it.

I don't get rich off of my day job; I get rich off of my homework.

“I promise you that during my life, I was more concerned about not letting people down, about doing my part, than I was ever into what it did for me. That is one of the great things about sports, and frankly, football really does instill that.”

“I have never had a problem dealing in areas of ambiguity. I can make a decision and not have it all lined up just right.”

“Other sports culminate at different times of the year, but the NFL is in the fourth quarter — that’s where the money is.”

“It’s kind of like...with our own checking accounts, just because it’s in there doesn’t mean you should spend it or can spend it. You know that you have the rent coming.”

“There’s no question that the striving, the stuff that you got out of [sports]. The depending on someone right beside you. ## Power Affirmation:

I am consistent in every quarter of this game. I overcome the bumps and obstacles, and I endure when I'm tired and laboring to succeed. But, it is in the fourth quarter that I show my true character. When I'm hurting, exhausted, and strained to the breaking point, it is then that my eyes narrow and I grit my teeth and charge forward with an unstoppable determination to win.

I know that my life is more than just me. I am here to serve and make this world a better place. I am a part of a team effort, and I can be trusted to do my part.

I can easily handle the uncertainties of life. I don't need for everything to be perfectly lined up before I take action. I am fearless and decisive. I can make a quick decision, and as I act upon it, things have a tendency to work out in my favor.

Every quarter of this game is important, but the fourth quarter is where I make massive amounts of wealth. Therefore, I stick to the process, remain patient, and reap my harvest when it reaches its fullest potential.

I don't spend my money just because I can. I hold on to it and only spend it on intelligent purchases. I always have what I need when the rent comes due.

I know my value and what I bring to the team. I also know the value of the person next to me and how much I can depend on them. I know that all of us are endowed with the ability to push through the pain and exhaustion and emerge on the other side in hard won victory. The price of my success is hard work, dedication to the job at hand, and the determination that whether I win or lose, I have applied the very best of myself at what I am doing.

I know that the one on top of the mountain didn't fall there. I intend to climb that mountain and take my place beside them.

I not only have the will to win, but I have the will to prepare to win.

The measure of who I am is what I do with what I have. I never have reason to complain. I always have something to work with.

My finest hour, the greatest fulfillment that I hold dear, is that moment when I have worked my heart out in a good cause and lie exhausted on the field of battle – VICTORIOUS.

I remember the value of my own individuality – that I have something special and different to offer that nobody else can.

Power Affirmations from the Wisdom of Today's Success Masters

I don't push myself to overcome my weaknesses; I play with my strengths.

Life is too short for me to live the same day twice.

I learn the most when bad things happen. It causes me to examine myself and take a good long look at myself. It makes me naturally start analyzing. It's not that I'm wrong; it's that sometimes I need to make adjustments. I need to see how to take better actions and create better situations. Those negative situations help me to see how to change my way of thinking, my way of doing, and my way of choosing.

I am extremely self-confident. I know who I am and what I stand for.

Life is giving and receiving. I get what I give. What I put into things is what I get out of them.

I have a healthy love for myself. I know I have to be OK on my own before I can be OK with somebody else. Therefore, I value myself, and I know that I am worth everything.

Chuck Lorre

“I’m thinking of writing a children’s story about a leaf on a tree who arrogantly insists he’s a self-made, independent leaf. Then one day a fierce wind blows him off his branch and to the ground below. As his life slowly ebbs away, he looks up at the magnificent old tree that had been his home and realizes that he had never been on his own. His entire life he had been part of something bigger and more beautiful than anything he could have imagined. In a blinding flash, he awakens from the delusion of self. Then an arrogant, self-centered kid rakes him up and bags him.”

“I believe I’ve spent my life expecting people to behave in a certain way. I believe that when they didn’t behave according to my expectations, I became angry, sad, confused and occasionally fearful. I believe these expectations are the reason I’ve been angry, sad, confused and occasionally fearful more than I care to admit. As a result, I now believe my expectations are the real problem. I believe that everyone has this very same problem, and they ought to start acting accordingly.”

“I believe that the voices of fear, both from without and within, can only be dispelled by trusting the voice that comes from the heart. Be still and listen to it. If it speaks of love and compassion for others, for the world itself, it just might be the voice of God — or a reasonable facsimile. If, however, it snarls with fear of the unknown, fear of losing what you have or of not getting what you want, then it just might be the voice of Rupert Murdoch — or a reasonable facsimile.”

Power Affirmation:

I know that no one is truly self-made. I cannot achieve anything in this world without the help of others. I need a team to produce products and services, and I need customers to buy them. I recognize the beauty and value of those around me. I contribute to their causes, and I cherish their contributions to mine. My entire life is a part of something bigger and more beautiful than anything I could possibly imagine.

I do not become angry or upset when people don't act the way I want them to. They must deal with their actions in their own way and on their own terms. My job is to dictate my own life and make my own world the best that it can be. If it means separating myself from others, or removing them from my circle, then so be it.

I dispel the voices of fear, from within and from without, by trusting in the voice that comes from my heart. I still myself and listen to it. When it speaks of love and compassion for others, or the world itself, it could be the voice of God speaking to me, or at least a reasonable facsimile. If it snarls with a fear of the unknown, fear of losing what I have or of not getting what I want, then it just might be the voice of Rupert Murdoch, or at least a reasonable facsimile, and that shouldn't move me to do anything but smile.

Power Affirmation:

I am constantly experimenting and trying new things. I stay ahead of the game.

I have the power to get almost anything I want in life. I just have to be patient and trust the process. I'm willing to wait while what I desire unfolds before me.

I am focused and disciplined. If I am having trouble sticking to a schedule, I reduce the time. I do less for the time being until I've developed the habit I desire. I do whatever it takes to remain absolutely consistent in my pursuit of my dream life.

As I rise, I naturally gain the attention of critics. That just shows me that I'm advancing and getting things done. Regardless, I stay focused and proceed.

My brain is built for survival, not happiness. Happiness is something that I have to create after the fact.

My life is dominated by one main fear: Not fully optimizing today. Now is all that there is or ever will be. What I do now is the seed of my future.

I know who I am and what I'm designed to do. I know my career destiny. My financial freedom is in the here and now.

Power Affirmation:

I don't waste my time complaining, faultfinding, or mulling over my problems. My voice was made for solutions. My mind affects my mouth, and my mouth affects my mind. Therefore, I keep my mind fixed upon solutions.

I remain forever humble, knowing the tremendous mercy that God has shown me. I choose to give that same mercy to others.

Every time I look in the mirror, I remember that God created me and everything He creates is beautiful and good.

Spending time with God is the key to my strength and success in every area of my life. He always has first place. My schedule revolves around Him.

I am ever thankful for the grace that God has given me. In His mercy, He doesn't give me what I deserve; in His grace, I get what I don't deserve. I live in the power of God's undeserved favor. I have God's power within me so that I can do exceedingly and abundantly above all that I could do in my own strength. God loves me unconditionally, constantly, and completely. Everything that I set my hand to do is blessed and prospers without fail.

God did not fill me with His Spirit so that I could do easy things. He puts his power within me so that I can do the impossible.

I place myself completely in God's care. He can take better care of me than I could ever take care of myself. He opens doors for me that I could never open. He closes doors for me to keep me out of trouble. I enjoy His favor and blessing everywhere that I go.

“If your life ended right now, would you be happy? Would your book be incomplete? You have more to do, so keep calling the plays. In football, it’s only 1 or 2 plays that make or break the game. “People respond to energy, much more than they do to words. They respond to what they feel, not what they hear and see. Hearing and seeing are real low-level influences. Energy, spirit, transfer of energy is what people respond to.”

Power Affirmations from the Wisdom of Today's Success Masters

Power Affirmation:

I accept the responsibility for everything in my life and embrace my power to change it.

The comfortable road does not lead me to the person I am destined to become. I accept the difficulties that I face knowing that I have the power to overcome every obstacle in my way.

I embrace the process that leads me to my desired destiny. I complete every task one step at a time. When something doesn't go right, I re-adjust and run another play. I never stop setting goals and making plans to achieve them, and I never stop taking consistent action on the plans I have made.

I don't need motivation in order to put my plans into action. I act regardless of how I feel, and that is why I succeed.

I do more than just think the right things. I speak the right things, and I act upon what I say.

I have God-sized dreams and the faith to see them realized. When my own knowledge, preparation, and training has reached its limit, God takes over to ensure I have exceedingly and abundantly above all that I ask or think.

People respond to my energy much more than my words. They respond to how I make them feel more than what they hear or see. My energy and spirit are what people respond to.

Power Affirmation:

I pro-actively associate with people who inspire me and challenge me to raise my stakes higher and be the best that I can be. My time and destiny are too important to associate with those who are not adding to my growth.

I trust God's timing. I am perfectly patient. I never rush into things or make rash decisions. I look for the open door instead of trying to force open those that are shut against me. I don't try to make things happen in my own strength. I trust God with all of my heart and lean not unto my own understanding. I let God do it His way. He gets better results than I do.

I am not intimidated by difficult times. They are not sent to destroy me, but to promote, increase, and strengthen me.

It is not my job to make other people happy. I stay true to my heart and my vision regardless of what other people think about it. I trust that the right people will naturally surround me when I am true to my own heart.

My victory in every battle begins in my mind. When I see something as permanent, I make it permanent. When I think I've reached my limits, I have actually set my limits. My mind sets the compass for my success. Every obstacle and every difficulty are just temporary. I overcome them by the power of consistent and unwavering faith coupled with massive action.

“Humanity was once an imaginative thought in the mind of God. Through the spoken word of creation, that thought took material form, but in our essence, we remain spiritual beings of energy. It is this origin that attracts us to one another, and often makes us lonely for each other. Why? We came from a common source. We are all one, and we remain one even if our misaligned perceptions tell us otherwise.”

“When we encounter one another without prejudice, we recall our common intelligence, knowledge, “beingness,” and our common parent. Each of us is a reminder of, or monument to, the source from which we are all derived. We can forget our unity or choose to ignore it, but that does not change its reality.”

“Since we came from God, we are made of the same substance as Divinity. Therefore, we remain intrinsically connected to God and to each other. God created us out of Himself, which means we are innately, internally, and eternally divine. We can experience true peace in this world only when we reconnect to our Original Source.”

“Freedom is not for cowards. We must thrust our lives into the hands of the living God whom we cannot see and trust Him to secure our future. This security must not be built upon our system of ideologies that control, limit, and deceive us. Walking by faith and not by sight literally means walking in unregulated freedom, unhindered by dogma. Can you stand to be free?”

Power Affirmation:

I am a spiritual being of energy that was once an imaginative thought in the mind of God. Through the spoken word of creation, that thought took material form. That same power of imaginative thought is present within me. It connects me with all things and all others. It attracts me to others and attracts others to me. Everything in existence came from one common Source and through that Source I connect with the people and things that are conducive to my dreams.

I encounter others without prejudice. I recall our common intelligence, knowledge, and beingness, and recognize that we have a common Parent. Each person is a reminder to me of the common Source from which we are all derived. In every person, I see a certain reflection of myself.

I came from God; therefore, I am made of the substance of divinity. I am intrinsically connected to God and all others. I am innately, internally, and eternally divine. Through my connection to my Original Source, I experience true peace and find the capability to achieve virtually anything that I want to achieve.

I embrace the dangers of freedom. I thrust my life into the hands of God, even though I cannot see Him, and I trust that my future is secure. I walk by faith and not by sight, and it brings me miraculous results. I am not bound by ideological systems designed to control, limit, and deceive me. I walk in unregulated freedom, unbound by doctrines and dogma, with the freedom to create any kind of life I desire to live.

“You let your past destroy you, or you use it to create something better.”

“Rather than focus on your critics, focus on the people who are impacted by your work.”

“God gives everyone a lane, and no one can beat you in your lane. Just stay focused on Him and what you are supposed to do. And everything will be alright.”

“Don’t wait for someone to green light your project; build your own intersection.”

“I always feed myself positivity. I turn to anything that teaches good, that teaches strength, and that you can make it. I swear to you that those kinds of thoughts come alive in your body and in anything you touch because your energy goes into everything you touch, everything you share and everything you speak. So, it’s most important that you surround yourself with positivity, always, and have it in your mind at all times.”

Power Affirmations from the Wisdom of Today's Success Masters

I don't have time for regrets. I refuse to let my past destroy me. Instead, I use it to create something better.

I don't have enough time to give any to critics and trolls. I choose to focus on the people who are impacted by my work.

God has given me a lane and as long as I'm in it, no one can beat me. I just focus on Him and what I'm created to do, and everything falls naturally into place.

I don't wait for someone to green light my project. I build my own intersection.

I always feed myself positivity. I focus on anything that teaches goodness and strength, and shows that I can get it done. These thoughts come alive in my body and in everything that I touch because my energy goes into everything that I touch. Everything I share and everything I speak is energy poured into my life and the world around me. Therefore, I surround myself with positivity and have it in my mind at all times.

Power Affirmations from the Wisdom of Today's Success Masters

Power Affirmation:

Faith and fear both demand that I believe in something that I cannot see. Therefore, since faith points me where I want to go, I choose faith and move forward fearlessly.

My goals are so big and exhilarating that they excite me and scare me at the same time. They are so appealing to me, and so in line with my spiritual core, that I can't get them out of my mind. I get chills when I think of them.

My outside world is a reflection of my inside world. My habitual thoughts are on display in my everyday actions.

No amount of reading or memorizing can make me successful. It is the understanding and application of what I've learned that bears me abundant fruit.

There is no power outside of me that is superior to the power that is within me. I wield the power of creation and can overcome any obstacle that I face.

I live above my old systems of belief and do what it takes to break old patterns that imprison me to old ways of living.

I refuse to worry about things beyond my control. I am a problem solver, not a worrier. Through worrying, I can never solve anything, prevent anything from happening, or heal anything that needs healing. Worry can only make matters worse for me; therefore, I give it no place in my life.

“As far as self-confidence goes, so much of social media is about approval, getting likes, comparing our lives to others’ — meanwhile, confidence is an inside job: it’s about how you feel about yourself regardless of what anyone else does or thinks. I am always trying new things, stepping out of my comfort zone, taking risks, and doing things in ways I've never done them before. When in need, I ask for help. I surround myself with self-actualized people. I am obsessed with the fact that I have one go-round on this planet in my present state of being. I realize how precious and important my life is, and I don't squander it.

I am extremely self-confident. I don't get confidence from outside sources like social media approval, getting likes, or comparing myself to others. My confidence is an inside job. It is about how I feel about myself regardless of what anyone else thinks or does. It's knowing that I am human. I am both flawed and awesome in my own way.

I live a life of excellence, not perfection. I do not wait for things to be perfect before I act. Perfection is the goal I will never achieve. It is my work in the present moment that counts. Therefore, I continually show up, make myself visible, and smile even when what I do sucks, or when I am judged by smaller minds.

I can get used to anything. I have a remarkable capacity to adapt and evolve, and I use this power to grow and become something greater and more valuable to the world. I blow right past mediocrity and find my home among the elite. I waste no time adapting to lousy relationships, soul-sucking jobs, and being friends with people who are rude to waitresses.

My healthy desire for wealth is not greed; it is a desire for a better experience of life.

My success is not about my performance alone. If I only listen to myself, it will only lead me to the bottom. The flowers of my victory belong in many vases. I build my world on the shoulders of giants.

I accept life's challenges, and I consistently win. I prove myself every time.

I am always composed. I never become agitated or over-stressed. I am always present in the moment.

Excellence is a joyful way to live. The more precise I am, the more I enjoy what I am doing.

I know who I am. I know my capabilities, so I can handle any pressure. I do what I can do, and I do it well. Anything else is not worth the stress.

I regularly exercise and stay in good shape. The older I get, the more it is necessary for me to focus on my workouts.

“When your vision is powerful enough, everything else falls into place: how you live your life, your workouts, what friends you choose to hang out with, how you eat, what you do for fun. Vision is purpose, and when your purpose is clear, so are your life choices. Vision creates faith and faith creates willpower. With faith, there is no anxiety, no doubt — just absolute confidence.”

“Strength does not come from winning. Your struggles develop your strengths. When you go through hardships and decide not to surrender, that is strength.”

“The mind is incredible. Once you’ve gained mastery over it, channeling its powers positively for your purposes, you can do anything. I mean anything. The secret is to make your mind work for you not against you. This means constantly being positive. Constantly setting up challenges you can meet either today, next week, or next month. “I can’t...” should be permanently stricken from your vocabulary, especially the vocabulary of your thoughts. You must see yourself always growing and improving.”

Power Affirmations from the Wisdom of Today's Success Masters

I live my dream. I see it, I believe it, and I never stop working to make it happen.

When my vision is powerful enough, everything else falls into place. The way I live my life, my workouts, the friends I choose to hang out with, how I eat, and what I do for fun are all in line with my vision. My vision is my purpose, and my purpose is clear. All of my choices are centered around it. My vision feeds my faith, and my faith creates the will power to get it done. My faith is unwavering. I have no room for fear, worry, anxiety, or doubt. I am supremely confident.

My strength doesn't come from winning; it comes from my struggles. When I face hardships, I never surrender. That is my strength.

I understand the incredible power of my mind; therefore, I gain mastery over it. I channel its powers positively for my purposes. I can do anything I set my mind to do. I make my mind work for me, not against me. I release all negativity. I am constantly positive. I am continuously setting up challenges to meet today, tomorrow, next week, and next month. I am covetous of my time. I spend it working on my passions – those things I truly love. I don't stress myself by working on things that I care nothing about.

I am not moved by the power to control others or be in charge of them. I don't need to have all the answers or be the most intelligent or qualified person in the room. I choose to empower others and to help them realize their true capabilities. All I need to do is articulate a vision of the world that does not exist and point in the right direction to make it happen. Then I just ask for help from those who are willing, and they astound me with their ingenuity.

My goal is not to be perfect in the end. It is to be better today.

I am beneficial to a vast amount of people simply by being me. I understand the concept of a team and that the best version of me makes me an outstanding teammate.

I don't live on past glories. They are the foundation of my present actions that are producing future glories.

I embrace the struggle of hard training. It helps me to remain focused when I'm tired and I don't feel like doing things. It gives me the discipline to pay attention to the present task, play through the pain, and emerge on the other side victorious.

No matter how much is going on around me, I remain focused on the task at hand. I am well able to work through the distractions and all of those things that try to keep me from my end goal. My mind is capable of amazing concentration any time I need it.

“Brilliant thinking is rare, but courage is in even shorter supply than genius.”

“Competition is overrated. In practice it is quite destructive and should be avoided wherever possible. Much better than fighting for scraps in existing markets is to create and own new ones.”

“The most successful businesses have an idea for the future that’s very different from the present.”

“EVERY MOMENT IN business happens only once. The next Bill Gates will not build an operating system. The next Larry Page or Sergey Brin won’t make a search engine. And the next Mark Zuckerberg won’t create a social network. If you are copying these guys, you aren’t learning from them.”

“We cannot take for granted that the future will be better, and that means we need to work to create it today.”

“When you are starting a new business, you don’t want to go after giant markets. You want to go after small markets and take over those markets quickly.”

Power Affirmation:

I can tap into brilliant ideas, but they are not what is most important. What is most important is that I tap into the courage to take action on my ideas and bring my goals into physical reality.

Power Affirmations from the Wisdom of Today's Success Masters

I am not worried about competition. I am a creator more than a competitor. Instead of fighting for the scraps in competing markets, I create and own new ones.

I am willing to leave the past behind me. It has created my present, but I have an idea for the future that is very different from what I am experiencing right now.

Every moment in business happens only once. I am not the next Bill Gates, Larry Page, Sergey Brin, or Mark Zuckerberg. They seized upon the moment in their day and created empires conducive to their own gifts and personalities. I am different. My empire is based on my own gifts and personality. I take the success principles they have taught me, adapt them to the best version of myself, and create something the world has never seen before.

I don't take the future for granted. I do what it takes to create it today.

I am not out to compete with Walmart, Microsoft, or Amazon. I seize the smaller market that is poised for growth, and I quickly turn it into a giant.

Power Affirmation:

I keep my focus on what is in front of me. It is the present task that needs my undivided attention. I’m not thinking about what can happen a month or a year from now. I am doing what I can right now so that I can get closer to where I want to be.

Power Affirmations from the Wisdom of Today's Success Masters

My knowledge isn't my power; my applied knowledge is my power. Without action, my knowledge is useless.

I make a habit of doing what is good for me. I choose the best path to take instead of what just feels good.

I turn my pain into greatness. I allow it to push me from where I am to where I need to be. I don't run from my pain, I embrace it. My pain is part of my product. It is part of my prize at the end of this struggle.

My greatness is found in doing a lot of small things well.

I can change environments, but until I change myself, nothing else will ever change. Therefore, I always act as the person I desire to be.

My success isn't about being the most talented, the smartest, or even working the hardest. It is about my consistency. My consistency overcomes all things that are in the way of my ultimate goal.

“A well-managed classroom is a task-oriented and predictable environment.”

“Half of what you will accomplish in a day will be determined before you leave home. Three quarters of what you achieve will be determined before you enter the classroom door.”

“When the assignment does not spell out what the student is to learn. There are no standards, no objectives, and no activities done for a specified reason. It's like shooting arrows blindfolded hoping that one will hit a non-existing target.”

Power Affirmation:

When I teach, I have a clear idea of what I expect from my students, and my students know what I expect from them as well. I create well established procedures and routines, and I maintain a task-oriented and predictable environment.

(Technology Entrepreneur, Computer Programmer, Electronics Engineer, and Philanthropist)

“The easier it is to do something, the harder it is to change the way you do it.”

“If you love what you do and are willing to do what it takes, it’s within your reach.”

“Most inventors and engineers I’ve met are like me. They’re shy and they live in their heads. The very best of them are artists. And artists work best alone.”

“I learned not to worry so much about the outcome, but to concentrate on the step I was on and to try to do it as perfectly as I could when I was doing it.”

“I hope you’re as lucky as I am. The world needs inventors—great ones. You can be one. If you love what you do and are willing to do what it really takes, it’s within your reach. And it’ll be worth every minute you spend alone at night, thinking and thinking about what it is you want to design or build. It’ll be worth it, I promise.”

“Don’t worry that you can’t seem to come up with sure billion-dollar winners at first. Just do projects for yourself for fun. You’ll get better and better.”

Power Affirmation:

I understand that the easier it is to do something, the harder it is to change the way I do it.

Power Affirmations from the Wisdom of Today's Success Masters

I love what I am doing, and I am willing to do whatever it takes to reach my goals. Therefore, anything I desire is within my reach.

I am true to myself. I always strive to be the best version of the real me.

I stay focused on the moment. It is not the outcome that counts. It is the step towards it that I am presently working on that counts. My focus is to complete this step in a spirit of excellence and then move on to the next.

I am naturally ingenious and innovative. I love what I do, and I do what it takes to get things done. All of the time that I spend alone at night, thinking, designing, building, and planning will all be worth it in the end.

I am not worried about coming up with billion-dollar ideas. I do projects that inspire me – projects that are fun and rewarding. As I get better and better, eventually I have to reach those billion-dollar ideas.

“F-E-A-R has two meanings: ‘Forget Everything And Run’ or ‘Face Everything And Rise.’ The choice is yours.”

“You can get everything in life you want if you will just help enough other people get what they want.”

“When you focus on problems, you get more problems. When you focus on possibilities, you have more opportunities.”

“Life is an echo. What you send out comes back. What you sow, you reap. What you give, you get. What you see in others, exists in you.”

“The next time you encounter a difficult obstacle or problem, you should smile and say, ‘Here’s my chance to grow.’”

“A good life is when you assume nothing, do more, smile often, dream big, laugh a lot and realize how blessed you are for what you have.”

“Most of the problems in life are because of two reasons, we act without thinking or we keep thinking without acting.”

Power Affirmation:

I choose the meaning that I give to FEAR. For me, it means ‘Face Everything And Rise.’

Power Affirmations from the Wisdom of Today's Success Masters

I can get everything I want in life if I will just help enough other people get what they want.

When I focus on problems, I get more problems. When I focus on possibilities, I discover more opportunities.

My life is an echo. What I send out comes back to me. What I sow, I reap. What I give, I get. What I see in others, exists in me.

When I face a difficult obstacle or problem, I just smile and say, "Here's my chance to grow."

I assume nothing, do more, smile often, dream big, laugh a lot, and always realize how blessed I am for the things that I have. I have a great life.

I think before I act, and I act on what I think. Most of my problems in life are because I act without thinking or keep thinking without acting.

“Don’t discount yourself, no matter what you’re doing. Everyone has a unique perspective that they can bring to the world.”

“People developed planes first and then took care of flight safety. If people were focused on safety first, no one would ever have built a plane.”

“I think a simple rule of business is, if you do the things that are easier first, then you can actually make a lot of progress.”

“If things aren’t breaking, then you’re not moving fast enough. People learn by making mistakes.”

“When you want to change things, you can’t please everyone. If you do please everyone, you aren’t making enough progress.”

“People think innovation is just having a good idea but a lot of it is just moving quickly and trying a lot of things.”

“If we want to have the biggest impact, the best way to do this is to make sure we always focus on solving the most important problems.”

Power Affirmations from the Wisdom of Today's Success Masters

Power Affirmation:

I never discount myself, no matter what I am doing. I have a unique perspective to bring to the world. I have value and that makes me a blessing to others.

I take calculated risks. If I always tried to be safe, I would never get anything done.

I take care of the easy tasks first. They give me the momentum to tackle the harder ones.

If things aren't breaking, then I'm not moving fast enough. I accept that I will make mistakes. That's all in the process of learning.

I can't change anything if I'm trying to please everyone. If I do please everyone, it is only evidence that I haven't made any progress.

To innovate, I must keep moving. I must experiment, test my ideas, and get as much done as I can.

If I want to have the biggest impact, the best way to do it is to make sure I always focus on solving the most important problems. My success is based on problem solving and providing a product or service that makes this world a better place.

After Words

Snap your finger.

In a moment, you will snap it again, but this time I want you to see yourself as everything that you desire to be. See in your MIND's eye everything that you want to be, do, or have. Get a clear image of that in your MIND right now.

Now snap your finger again and say with total and complete confidence, "IT IS DONE!"

Your power just amplified. Your dream just accelerated. Your life will never be the same.
